Judge: Hon. Edward J. Davila

Courtroom: 4, 5th Floor

27 Action Filed: July 11, 2008

1 I, Robert M. Foote, hereby declare as follows:

2 1. I am an attorney licensed to practice law in the State of Illinois and am a principal
 3 of Foote, Mielke, Chavez & O’Neil, LLC (“Foote Mielke”), one of the counsel for plaintiffs in this
 4 action. I submit this declaration is support of Plaintiffs’ Motion for (1) An Award of Attorneys’
 5 Fees, (2) Reimbursement of Costs and Expenses, and (3) Incentive Awards. I make this declaration
 6 of my own personal knowledge, information, and belief and, and if called upon to do so, could and
 7 would competently testify as set forth herein.

8 2. My firm is one of the counsel for plaintiffs in this case. Foote Mielke and I are 9 highly experienced in handling complex plaintiff-side litigation, including class actions. A copy of 10 our firm resume, summarizing its attorneys’ backgrounds and experience, is attached hereto as 11 Exhibit A.

12 3. Under the direction of Class Counsel, my firm has been involved in various key
 13 tasks and activities on behalf of plaintiffs and the settlement class during the course of this
 14 litigation. This work included factual research, litigation strategy, work with experts and extensive
 15 document review.

16 4. These litigation efforts discussed above on behalf of plaintiffs and the settlement
 17 class can be allocated and categorized as follows:

Category	Hours
Identifying and Communicating with Plaintiffs	0.5
Document Review	1496.8
Investigations and Factual Research	64.5
Written Discovery	46.0
Depositions	100.4
Pleadings, Briefs, and Pretrial Motions	42.0
Experts	113.7
Court Appearances	16.8
Litigation Strategy and Analysis	72.2
Class Certification	6.1

Settlement	37.1
Administrative	1.2
Total	1997.3

5. Throughout the course of this litigation, my firm maintained daily, contemporaneous billing records documenting all time spent in increments of one-tenth of an hour, including tasks performed and expenses incurred in this matter. Based upon my review of my firm's timekeeping records, Foote Mielke has expended 1997.3 hours prosecuting this litigation since its inception through February 28, 2017. Multiplied by current hourly billing rates, Foote Mielke has accrued a total lodestar of $1,081,585.00. These figures do not include any time spent in connection with this motion for an award of attorneys' fees or any time that may still be incurred by my firm in connection with settlement approval and final resolution of this action. Expense items are billed separately and are not duplicated in my firm's lodestar.

6. Additionally, in connection with this motion, Class Counsel—Schubert Jonckheer & Kolbe LLP—has reviewed my firm's timekeeping records and removed entries for work performed that was not directly related to tasks specifically requested or assigned by Class Counsel, that was not otherwise directly necessary for the effective prosecution and resolution of the case, or that was potentially duplicative of work performed by others. For instance, time records in which attorneys generally read and reviewed court filings (when not tasked with a specific assignment in connection with those filings) are not included in my firm's total 1997.3 hours discussed above. Additionally, billing records for work performed prior to the Court's February 25, 2009 Order consolidating the various related underlying actions (Dkt. 40) are not included. The time reported by my firm herein was incurred for the benefit of plaintiffs and the settlement class, and I believe it was reasonably necessary for the effective prosecution and resolution of this case. Those records have been provided to Class Counsel, and I have authorized Class Counsel to lodge them for inspection, if so ordered by the Court.

7. The total hours and lodestar of the attorneys, paralegals, and other staff of my firm expended in pursuing the claims in this action, applying the framework discussed above, are summarized as follows¹:

Name	Title / Status	Hours	Rate	Lodestar
Robert Foote	Partner	79.3	$850	$67,405.00
Kathleen Chavez	Partner	68.2	$750	$51,150.00
Craig Mielke	Partner	21.6	$650	$14,040.00
Peter Currie	Senior Associate	8.8	$600	$5,280.00
Matt Herman	Senior Associate	158.4	$550	$87,120.00
Alex Caron	Associate	915.9	$350	$320,565.00
Michael D. Wong	Associate	56.3	$350	$19,705.00
Stephen Fung	Associate	0.7	$350	$245.00
Steve Arpaia	Consulting Counsel	688.1	$750	$516,075.00
Totals		1997.3		$1,081,585.00

8. Foote Mielke's hourly billing rates are fair, reasonable, and in line with comparable law firms. These rates are the usual and customary rates charged for each individual in all of our cases. Numerous other courts have approved Foote & Mielke's rates in other class actions and other matters, including: In Re Groupon Marketing and Sales Practice Litigation, No. 3:11-md-02238-DMSRBB, Southern District of California, Hon. Dana M. Sabraw (consumer class); Burns vs. IFDA Services, et al., No. 3:09-cv-00390-GPM Southern District of Illinois, Hon. G. Patrick Murphy (consumer class); Otero v. Dart, et al., No. 1:12-cv-03148, Northern District of Illinois, Hon. Amy St. Eve (class on behalf detained individuals) (approving rates $850/hour for Robert Foote, $750/hour for Kathleen Chavez, $750/hour for Craig Mielke, $550/hour for Peter Currie, $550/hour for Matthew Herman and $350/hour for associate time).

¹ The hourly rate shown for any attorney or paralegal who: (a) is no longer employed by Foote & Mielke or (b) has been promoted, reflects the last rate that applied at the time of their employment in that position.

1 9. The expenses my firm incurred in litigating this action are reflected in the books
2 and records of my firm. These books and records are prepared from expense vouchers, invoices,
3 receipts, check records, and other source materials, and accurately reflect the expenses incurred.
4 My firm's expense records are available for inspection by the Court if necessary.

5 10. My firm incurred a total of $91,316.90 in unreimbursed expenses, all of which were
6 reasonable and necessary for the prosecution of this litigation. This amount does not include the 7 various assessment payments Foote & Mielke made to Class Counsel during the action for
8 common litigation expenses. A summary of my firm's unreimbursed expenses by category follows
9 below:

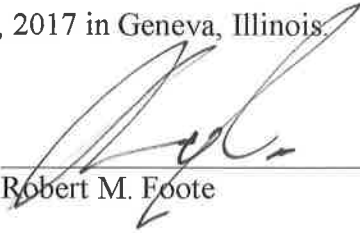

Expense Category	Totals
Alternative Dispute Resolution / Mediation	$2,850.00
Experts	$65,802.96
FedEx	$95.44
Filing Fees	$1,190.00
Legal Research (PACER, Lexis, Westlaw)	$918.00
Litigation Consultant Fees	$2,935.26
Process Service	$75.00
Telephone / Facsimile	$614.66
Travel-Related Expenses	$16,835.58
Expense Totals	$91,316.90

11 11. Prosecution of this action has involved significant financial risk for Foote &
12 Mielke. My firm undertook this matter solely on a contingent basis, with no assurance of any 13 recovery, and devoted significant resources in terms of its time, energy, and efforts to the 14 resolution of plaintiffs and the settlement class's claims. Class actions such as this are typically 15 complex and protracted, and this case, filed in July 2008 and which involved extensive appellate
16 practice, is not an exception. Additionally, Foote & Mielke's litigation efforts in this matter
17 prevented my firm from pursuing other work that might well have been as or more rewarding than 18 this action.

FOOTE, MIELKE, CHAVEZ & O'NEIL, LLC

FOOTE, MIELKE, CHAVEZ & O'NEIL, LLC (FMCO) is a highly regarded boutique complex civil litigation Chicago law firm with a large national footprint. Founding partners Kathleen Chavez and Robert Foote pride themselves on having established one of the most recognized and innovative complex litigation law firms in the United States. We offer our clients a unique and unconventional approach to litigation. We are committed to relentlessly pursuing justice, rolling up our sleeves and working with our clients on effective and expeditious problem-solving. Sometimes, solutions can only be realized by "out-of-the-box" thinking which, along with innovative approaches, are the only way to successfully litigate and achieve resolution of complex cases.

FMCO has achieved its successes, and has acquired important leadership roles in many of the most transformative cases nationwide, because we offer a very unique set of skills, knowledge, determination, compassion, curiosity, experience and creativity. We believe that tough problems are solved through innovative approaches, flexibility, collaboration and the hard work and concentrated efforts of a committed team of lawyers.

The Kind of Representation FMCO Provides

Our firm seeks out the kinds of cases many practitioners run from — interesting cases that offer us a chance to get creative, think deeply, challenge unclear or inconsistent precedent, shape the direction of our state and federal law and achieve transformative justice. We are not afraid or opposed to forging the path; to the contrary, we pride ourselves on being innovators and leaders. We are not just looking for the easy case — our complex civil litigation lawyers are excited about getting involved in cases that among other things:

- Involve multiple or complex legal issues
- Require development and discovery of interesting facts
- Involve multiple parties
- Challenge unclear or inconsistent legal precedent
- Offer an opportunity to make new law
- Offer broad impact or an opportunity to help shape public policy
- Provide us an opportunity to collaborate and work productively with other lawyers to achieve optimal results
- Engage creative litigation techniques and require innovative solutions

In our complex practice, Kathleen Chavez, Robert Foote and their team of attorneys represent individuals, trusts, unions and corporations, local and state governments in a wide range of complex litigation in both federal and state jurisdictions. Partners Kathleen Chavez and Robert Foote lead our complex civil litigation practice and both have impressive academic credentials, as well as extensive experience in national, multi-district, class, collective and complex litigation. Both of them are among the select few attorneys nationally who have actually gone to trial (and appeal) of more than one class action case, including both jury trial and administrative class trials. Both have extensive actual trial experience in all phases of individual and multiple plaintiff litigation.

Additionally, both attorneys Kathleen Chavez and Robert Foote have served, and currently serve, on steering committees and in leadership positions in some of the most important complex litigation nationwide. Each has been selected to serve as counsel in complex matters by clients, attorneys and judges. Our attorneys' experiences in complex litigation includes, among other areas: antitrust/competition, breach of contract accusations, consumer fraud, technology claims, franchise, unfair trade practices, Racketeering Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act (RICO), environmental, qui tam (whistleblower claims), trademark, complex securities litigation and shareholder derivative actions.

FOOTE, MIELKE, CHAVEZ & O'NEIL, LLC

ROBERT M. FOOTE, PARTNER

Born in Massachusetts in 1954, Robert Foote earned his undergraduate degree from Harvard in 1976 and his law degree in 1979 from the University of Wisconsin. He was admitted to the Illinois bar in 1979 and has spent more than three decades as an accomplished trial lawyer who has collected in excess of a billion dollars for his clients. With hundreds of jury and bench trials to his credit, Mr. Foote came together with his current firm which gave him an opportunity to delve deeper into complex litigation and class claims across the country.

Mr. Foote has experience representing plaintiffs in complex class action litigation, with service in leadership positions. Judge Matthew F. Kennelly of the Northern District of Illinois appointed Mr. Foote to the Steering Committee of In Re Text Messaging Antitrust Litigation, a Sherman Act antitrust action. Additionally, he was on the Steering Committee of In Re Managed Care Litigation, appointed by Judge Frederico Moreno of the Southern District of Florida, and where settlements totaling approximately $1 billion dollars to date have been obtained on behalf of healthcare providers. Mr. Foote was also a member of the court-appointed Executive Committee of In Re Insurance Brokerage Antitrust Litigation, where settlements have accumulated to over $400 million dollars to date.

Mr. Foote has successfully served in leadership roles for class actions throughout the country: Court appointed as lead counsel in resolving a $58 million dollar consumer claim by Judge G. Patrick Murphy of the Southern District of Illinois in Tipsword v. I.F.D.A. Services, Inc., et al., court appointed class counsel by Judge Peter J. Corrigan in Westgate Ford Truck Sales v. Ford Motor Company, court appointed co-lead counsel in Havlish v. bin Laden, et al., by Judge Frank Maas, resulting in a judgment in excess of $6 billion dollars on behalf of families of victims of the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001; and lead class counsel in Lee v. Allstate, resulting in an approximately $30 million dollar settlement in an insurance dispute.

Mr. Foote has acted as counsel to governmental entities in the following actions:

- Representing a group of 24 states, attorney general offices and underground storage tank funds in ongoing investigations, mediations and litigations against major oil companies in effort to collect improper payments obtained by the oil companies.
- State of Colorado, et al, v. ConocoPhillips Company, Docket No. 12-CV-0451 (CO Cir. Ct.)
- State of South Dakota, et al, v. BP plc, et al., Docket No. 10-257(S.D. Cir. Ct.)

KATHLEEN C. CHAVEZ, PARTNER

Kathleen C. Chavez is a founding partner of Foote, Mielke, Chavez & O'Neil, LLC.

Ms. Chavez earned her Juris Doctor degree in 1998 from Northwestern University School of Law and a Bachelor of Science degree in Finance from Northern Illinois University in 1995. She was admitted to the Illinois bar in 1998 and is admitted in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, United States District Court for the Southern District of Illinois, the Federal Trial Bar and the Federal Court of Claims. Ms. Chavez has also been admitted pro hac vice in numerous cases nationwide. She has extensive litigation experience in multi-district litigation ("MDL"), federal and state civil litigation, class action litigation, arbitrations (including class and multi-plaintiff) and litigation before administrative tribunals, such as the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

Ms. Chavez is an accomplished trial attorney who has extensive experience in all aspects of complex civil litigation including such tasks as: case investigation, pleadings, discovery, e-discovery, document review, motion practice, trial (including class action), appeals and mediation/settlements. Her practice is focused on complex civil cases (including class, multi-plaintiff, mass tort and individual) involving competition, consumer fraud, unfair trade practices, environmental, technology, trademark, qui tam, civil rights, breach of contract, Racketeering Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act ("RICO"), employment, wage and hour, insurance and other state and federal statutory and common law claims. Ms. Chavez is a certified arbitrator, mediator and American Arbitration Association ("AAA") Employment Panel Arbitrator. Ms. Chavez is involved in numerous professional organizations and is a speaker at conferences and seminars on topics such as alternative dispute resolution, mediation, class arbitration and employment law litigation. She has spent her career advocating for the rights of plaintiffs, including infants, children, individuals, employees and governmental entities, who have been injured or suffered loss due to fraud, deception, unfair competition, discrimination, harassment, illegal pay practices, environmental contamination, breach of contract, defective products, automobile accidents and a host of other injustices.

Ms. Chavez frequently serves in leadership roles, on committees and as a team member in some of the most challenging and transformative complex civil litigation nationwide. Ms. Chavez has utilized her diverse experience and unique background to consistently provide invaluable contributions in cases that require the cooperation and collaboration of multiple plaintiffs' counsel. Whether as a leader or a team member, Ms. Chavez consistently offers an unparalleled level of advocacy, energy, enthusiasm and commitment to her clients. Recoveries from the cases in which she has been involved (including verdicts, judgments and settlements) exceed $7 billion dollars and involve a diverse range of complex civil claims, for example:

- In Tipsword v. I.F.D.A. Services, Inc., et al., served as lead counsel for the consumer class in resolving a $58 million dollar claim, before Judge G. Patrick Murphy of the Southern District of Illinois, for damages occasioned by the collapse of the Illinois Funeral Directors Association Pre-Need Trust.

- Havlish v. bin Laden, Docket No. 03-MDL- 1570 (S.D. NY): counsel for surviving families of those killed in the 9/11 attacks on the World Trade Centers. Plaintiffs obtained a $6 billion dollar judgment. The Court found the Islamic Republic of Iran, its Supreme Leader Ayatollah Ali Hosseini Khameni, the former Iranian President Ali Akbar Hashemi Rafsanjani, and other Iran Agencies and instrumentalities all materially aided and supported al Qaeda before and after 9/11.
- In In Re Managed Care Litigation MDL 1344, before Judge Frederico Moreno of the Southern District of Florida, settlements were obtained consisting of monetary relief and significant changes in business practices valued in excess of $1 billion dollars. The class consisted of physicians and medical associations and the claims (civil conspiracy in violation of RICO) were brought against nine of the largest managed care companies in the United States.
- Westgate Ford Truck Sales v. Ford Motor Company, Docket No. 02-CV-483526 (Ohio Cir. Ct.): served as a member of the trial team that resulted in a $2 billion dollar judgment on behalf of class of dealers who purchased medium duty of heavy duty trucks from the defendant. The case was tried as a breach of contract action alleging a systematic breach of the dealers Sales and Service Agreements which required Ford to sell products to every dealer using prices, charges and discounts that are published in advance. The class maintained Ford breached the agreement through the operation of a pricing program known as the Competitive Price Assistance Program. The Ohio Appellate Court reversed the $2 billion judgment and the case is currently awaiting a retrial.
- In Re Lupron Marketing and Sales Practices Litigation, MDL 1430: served as Class Settlement Counsel in a class action against the manufacturer and marketers of the drug Lupron. The Court approved a $150 million settlement for patients, insurance companies and health and welfare benefit plans that purchased the drug. Plaintiffs successfully claimed the defendants engaged in a scheme to artificially inflate the average wholesale price. Plaintiffs maintained such claims under RICO 18 U.S.C. § 1962(c) and (d) as well as the consumer protection laws of 34 states.
- In Nash et al v. CVS Corporation, in the United States District Court for the District of Rhode Island served as Co-Lead Settlement Counsel on behalf of current and former assistant managers and assistant store managers claiming they were not properly paid overtime because they were misclassified by the company as “exempt” from federal and state overtime pay requirements. The case was brought under the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 201, et seq., and similar state wage and overtime laws. The case was settled and the defendant agreed to pay up to $34 million into a fund for class member claims.
- In Re Insurance Brokerage Antitrust Litigation, MDL 1663: served as counsel to a class of plaintiff policyholders who alleged the insurance brokerage firms and companies conspired with one another to allocate customers and markets resulting in artificially inflated premiums paid by policyholders. Plaintiffs brought claims under the RICO

Act, 18 U.S.C. § 1962(c) and (d), Section 1 of the Sherman Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1, and similar state laws. To date settlements have accumulated in excess of $400 million.

- Barnes v. Canadian National Railway Company, et al.: served as Lead Class Counsel in the Northern District of Illinois and recovered $3 million and important nonmonetary relief (i.e., training, monitoring, reporting, etc.) on behalf of a class of African American railroad workers subjected to racial discrimination in the workplace. The complaint maintained the defendants' conduct was unlawful under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq., and the Civil Rights Act of 1866, as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 1981 & § 1981(A).

Ms. Chavez has served as counsel in many complex, class action and MDL matters, including but not limited to:

- Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences v. GoDaddy.com, Inc., Docket No. 10-CV-3738 (C.D. CA)
- Amft v. United States Dep't of Transp., EEOC Case No. 210-2004-00139X (2004)
- Barnes v. Canadian National, Docket No. 04 C 1249 (N.D. Ill.)
- Bolden v. Walsh Construction Company, Docket No. 06-cv-4104 (N.D. IL)
- Byas, et al. v. Union Pacific Railroad, Docket No. 06-CV-475 (S.D. IL)
- Carter v. Allstate, Docket No. 02 L 717 (Ill. Cir. Ct.)
- Douglas Powers and Suzan McCarthy, et al., v. U.S. Department of Transportation, Agency, EEOC Case Nos. 210-2002-6091X
